

WE NOMINATE

Harold Adamy Odell, one of New Jersey's leaders in the sphere of public education, who in the spring of 1953 is rounding out seven years of distinguished service to the Princeton Area. Principal of Princeton High School since the fall of 1946 and this weekend entering upon his duties as the newly-elected President of the State Association of Secondary School Principals, Odell next September 1st will become Principal of the Montclair (N.J.) High School—an honor for which 120 established administrators were invited to compete and a position recognized as "the tops of its kind" in the Middle Atlantic States.

In moving on to the community that spends more per capita on education than any other municipality in New Jersey, this 47-year old native of Pennsylvania has brought new recognition to the local school system. His appointment meant that authorities outside of the Princeton orbit liked what they saw and then found upon close examination that a four-grade high school, drawing 76 per cent of its enrollment from the nine "sending districts" outside of the Borough, has advanced the philosophy of "education for all" but has never sought to yoke the likely and the impossible.

Odell, now in his 26th year in education and the first to emphasize that the development of a sound school is a long-range proposition involving the cooperation of the public, Teachers and students, believes first of all in tailoring school programs to the needs of individuals. For instance, a recent survey shows that Princeton high school graduates are doing even better in their college studies than they did in high school; that the scope of vocational training programs is being broadened; that more than half of the students—regardless of their academic interests—are participating in some phase of the unique program in music.

A former principal of a Connecticut high school and before that a Vice-Principal in Rutherford, N.J., Odell has done infinitely more than simply talk about "developing the whole person." The Student Court has never been stronger, two out of three of the high school's girls are enrolled in after-school athletics and there is a strong probability that next fall the Student Council will be ready to install a full-fledged "Honor System" governing the conduct of school examinations. And only a few institutions, when rated in nine different areas of evaluation, have ever earned three "very superiors" and nothing below a "superior" from an impartial examining board of educators from other communities.

For meriting the gratitude and best good wishes of his fellow Princetonians; for helping others understand why schools everywhere are this Nation's first line of defense; for contributing immeasurably to the morale of the entire community by stimulating its pride in its own schools; he is Town Topics' nominee for Thoughts on Thoughtlessness.

Tuesday's state-wide air alert had no repercussions in New Jersey save in Princeton. Purely by coincidence but giving the effect of premeditation, the sirens signalling the "all-clear" were followed by a student riot of unfortunate and unnecessary dimensions.

Nassau Street store windows were broken, including a large one at Hulit's, the Garden Theatre was invaded by part of the noisy crowd and traffic was disrupted. Police who partially stemmed the ruckus by handcuffing several students and hauling them off to the detention cells in Borough Hall were generally harrassed by the milling throng, (although no cruiser cars were overturned as they had been in virtually identical riots a quarter-century ago.)

Townpeople, to whom the demonstrations are nothing new, wished the undergraduates would cease to fire a fast strike past themselves in town-gown relations. Whatever the cause, the thoughtless demonstration and a willful property damage were renewed evidence that while the world slowly matures, a certain segment of the Princeton student body does not.

Rhodes Replaces Odell. William H. Rhodes, assistant principal of Princeton High School since 1947, was named Tuesday night to succeed Harold A. Odell. Mr. Odell (see "Man of the Week") is leaving at the end of the academic year to become principal of Montclair High School.

Unanimously elected by the board of education, Mr. Rhodes came to Princeton High 11 years ago as a biology teacher. He had previously been in the Upper Freehold Township school system for 12 years, seven of them as teaching-principal.

A native of Philadelphia, he prepared for College at Central High School and holds degrees from Waynesburg College and the University of Pennsylvania. His home is at 137 Jefferson Road.

The board also granted a year's leave of absence to John R. Arcsott and Elmore Day. Absence for the second term next year was granted to Mrs. Verna Green.

Teaching of French in the sixth and possibly the fifth grade, starting next September, has been approved. B. Woodhull Davis, supervising principal, made the recommendation on the basis that the trend in this country is toward "earlier instruction in the conversational romance languages." Conversely, Latin was de-emphasized to become an eighth grade elective.

Bingo to Go? A harmless pastime that children know as "lotto," adults once called "hingo" and now refer to as "novelty parties" because hingo is presumably illegal, was stealing the headlines this week from much of the unfortunate notoriety into which gambling has plunged New Jersey.  ty's particular paradox stemmed from these developments:
 County Prosecutor Mario Volpe ordered all police chiefs to enforce the no-gambling edict fully, to the extent that they prohibit bingo games, lotteries, raffles and similar activities used by numerous church, veterans' and fire organizations as fund-raising projects.

Trenton's Public Safety Director Andrew J. Duch, backed by City Counsel Louis Josephson, took a stand against such a move. Mr. Duch was a favor of permitting bingo; Mr. Josephson asked the prosecutor why he does not enforce an ancient state law, still on the statutes, forbidding "traveling, worldly employment or business; shooting, fishing, fiddling, or any kind of sport on Sunday."

But in three big townships that are part of greater Trenton, police chiefs interpreted Mr. Volpe's declaration to mean that they had no alternative, said this would be "the last week" for gambling of any kind, regardless of the sponsor. Their attitude was that the legislature must decide (a suggestion that both defeated Republican candidates Malcolm S. Forbes and victorious Robert B. Meyner have made in urging the state to legalize bingo.)

Church leaders, too, willingly stepped into the spotlight: The Rev. Charles A. Sayre, head of Trenton's Protestant church council, charged Mr. Duch with defying efforts to end an "immoral" activity. Monsignor Martin J. Lipinski, Catholic priest, promptly claimed that Mr. Sayre had "publicly insulted a vast group of his fellow citizens" by injecting a morals issue into the bingo debate.

In Princeton, action was much slower. Police Chief Edward W. Mahan said he planned to arrange a meeting of Mayor P. MacKay Sturges and Police Commissioner J. Dayton Voorhees. Until that session is held, he said, nothing will be done about the prosecutor's order.

Nash Agency to Brook. Nash Motors of Detroit, Michigan, has appointed Brook Motors of 198 Witherspoon Street as its Princeton dealer. The entire line of Nash automobiles is accordingly available in this community for the first time in many years.

Nash features The Ambassador, the Rambler and the Statesman, three distinctively-styled models. For further details, see the announcement advertisement on page seven.

Harold Brook, owner of Brook Motors, has announced that his agency will continue to serve all makes of cars, including the Willys line whose franchise he has held but relinquished when the Nash dealership was awarded to him. A lifelong resident of Princeton, Mr. Brook has been in the automobile field here since 1936.

It's New to Us

Hay Foot, Straw Foot, Straw cloth that's really a sturdy cotton has been used to make some unusual playclothes for children at Lillian Bellows, 20 Nassau, Topping it all is a straw hat with deep fringe, like something Huck Finn might wear. There's a fringed drawstring bag that matches.

You can have a whole range of playclothes - shorts, a shirt, skirt and even tunic and pants, size three. All but the shirt are in a golden straw-tone. The trim on all the pieces is orange, and the shirt is entirely orange. Tropical lemons cluster at the bag's drawstring, or on the pocket of the shorts.

More orange, this time with black, in a flowered skirt with sleeveless blouse. You can buy the whole thing for Reunion Weekend and it will only cost you $5.95. The orange is a subdued shade—almost like bright peach. Your daughter will love that skirt, by the way—it has pockets lined in orange, with a sort of eyelet top that gives two openings to each pocket.

Boys and girls both will be standing in line at the denim-and-tattersall shelves. For girls, there are shirts, shorts, skirts, a jumper and a buttoned jockey hat. These clothes are denim trimmed in tattersall check. Prices are in the medium range ($2.95 for a shirt).

Crinkleton and seersucker here, too, for mothers who are allergic to the iron. One crinkleton is a splendid bright primrose red.

Boys will like a denim jacket and shorts set. It comes in a denim called "huckleberry"—sort of a deep purplish grey.

Before you leave, don't forget to look at the tiny gardener's apron, about a size four, with a broad pocket in front containing rake, shovel, spade and a package of radish seeds. There are also mitts for gardening, in case you are worried about callouses on a five-year-old hand. For $1.95.

A Bonnet for Spring. We know a lot of women who can spend a whole morning poring over the deep bins of hats they have at the Betty Wright Shop, 200 Nassau. (As you know, this used to be called The Little Hosiery Shop.) These bins are open stacks—you can experiment and try on as long as there are pennies in your meter.

We saw a summer party hat in embroidered pique, white, with single dew-drop rhinestones here and there on its surface. A less formal hat is made of four rosettes that have been wound of white grosgrain ribbon. Lay the four rosettes anywhere on your head, and let the flesh-colored veiling form the rest of the hat.

Mrs. Wright has assembled a collection of bags and belts that will surprise you with their price-tags. For $3.98, a belt in pastel calf (powder blue, light chamois, etc.) that's so flexible and soft you can crumple it in your hand.

There's a bag that matches the chamois belt. It's a deep pouch with snap top, rather like an old-fashioned man's coin purse. We wondered a little about these soft light leathers, but Mrs. Wright tells us they will clean with Ivory soap and water.

This chamois bag, incidentally, is lined in cocoa-colored denim with sprays of white flowers flocked on its surface. More durable than the usual lining. The bag is $5.98, plus tax.

One of the handsomest bags we have ever seen is the box bag by Blok. Made of white calf trim—Continued on Page 20 come to meet the $200,000 goal. Of the contributors to date, the committee in charge reports approximately 25 percent are non-members of the church.

B. Franklin Bunn, chairman of the construction committee, has announced that the building program is on schedule, despite the unusually wet spring and a delay in steel delivery. Matthews Construction Co. is expected to meet the completion date of September 15, with the excavating for the new chapel completed and the walls half finished. Remodeling of the original facilities has also made steady progress.

Bazaar Next Week. Arrangements are complete for the annual bazaar to be staged next Saturday, May 9, by the Central Jersey Well-sley Club. It will be held, regardless of weather conditions, from 11 to 5 at Miss Fine's School.

Among the features will be a variety of children's amusements, such as a fish pond, pony rides and games. Sweets-to-order will be on sale, as will hand-blocked cotton skirts, tweed and linen shorts and skirts, blouses and sweaters. Holly bushes will be among the many ready-to-plant offerings at the flower and plant tables.

Luncheon will be served at a snack bar, with proceeds from the entire bazaar used for the May Margaret Fine Scholarship Fund at Wellesley College. Mrs. Robert N. Pease and Miss Helen Woodruff are co-chairmen of the affair.

Assisting them are Mrs. Donald Wilbur, Mrs. Lawrence Webster, Mrs. Eugene Wagner, Mrs. Fenn Stafford, Mrs. Edward B. Irish, Mrs. Everett Garretson, Mrs. Donald C. Stuart, Jr., Mrs. R. Kenneth Fairman, Mrs. Walter L. Wright, Mrs. Frank Gorman, Mrs. Sterling Anders, Mrs. Erling Dorf, Mrs. William Lockwood, Mrs. Howard McMorris and Mrs. Marshall Stuart.

Red Cross Nominees. The Red Cross has nominated Herbert C. Sturhahn to serve as its chairman for another 12 months. Dr. Rudolf A. Clemens, chairman of the nominating committee has announced. The chapter's annual meeting will be held May 26 at 8 p.m. at Trinity Church.

Nominees for two vice-chairmanships are William H. Scheide and Chester H. Stroup. Others on the slate are Mrs. Gerald Nelson, secretary; Ellwood Tatum, treasurer; and Miss Ann Lyons, assistant treasurer. Mrs. William G. Riley has been nominated for a one-year term as a director. Dr. Henry Abrams, Dr. Thomas Harvey, Mrs. Sarah Harris and James Wakelin are nominees for four-year terms.

Mrs. Geoffrey Sage, who has retired after 10 years of service as the chapter's executive secretary, was honored at a dinner given at the Peacock Inn by the directors and committee chairmen. Many of those present paid tribute to Mrs. Sage, who will continue as a volunteer, concentrating her efforts on the blood donor program, home service and the Junior Red Cross.

A silver bowl was presented to Mrs. Sage by Mr. Sturhahn. It was inscribed: "To Mary Lilly Sage, for outstanding service, from the Princeton Chapter, American Red Cross."

Rummage Sale Thursday. The Hospital Aid Committee will hold its annual spring rummage sale next Thursday, May 7, at the Chambers Street firehouse. A sale the previous day will offer furniture, books, rugs, kitchen equipment and other bulky miscellaneous articles. See the classified advertising, page 2, for hours and other information.

 Welfare agencies in Princeton will call at the firehouse on Friday for all left-over articles which can be put to use. Princeton merchants have aided the sale with contributions of merchandise, the committee in charge reports.

Mrs. Miller Re-elected. Mrs. William Miller has been elected president of the League of Women Voters for a second year. The league has adopted a three-point program to further consolidation: it will seek to increase understanding of the issues at stake; to work for an acceptable plan for such a merger; and, if the referendum is successful, will provide the community with facts about its new government. The league has also adopted a platform which includes a stand for better recreational facilities in the community and for integration of public health services into a consolidated district employing qualified personnel.

Officers who will serve with Mrs. Miller are Mrs. Jess Epstein, first vice-president; Mrs. Robert Shaw, second vice-president; Miss Braxton Preston, third vice-president; Mrs. Roger McDonough, recording secretary; Mrs. John White, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank Notestein, treasurer; Mrs. Emerson Swift and Mrs. Frederick Dunn, members-at-large; Mrs. David Jones, chairman of the nominating committee, assisted by Mrs. Seymour Bogdonoff, Mrs. Lenderking Centeno, Mrs. Edward F. D'Arms and Mrs. William Lockwood.

Willys from O'Keefe. Willys-Overland cars and jeeps, no longer available through a Princeton dealer, may be purchased through O'Keefe Motors of 403 Samuel Street, Trenton. Until a new Willys agency is established here, O'Keefe Motors will represent this car manufacturing company (recently merged with Kaiser-Frazer) in the Princeton area.

Owned by William O'Keefe, O'Keefe Motors has been in the automotive field since 1916 and has sold Willys cars since 1933. It serves the Trenton-Princeton area as a sports car center, offering in addition to Willys: Austin, the Hillman Minx, Rover, Riley, M. G. and the German-made Volkswagen.

Baptists Plan Drive. The Princeton Baptist Church at Penns Neck will launch a drive Sunday to assure preservation of the building and to provide for its expanding Sunday School and congregational needs. Plans have been made to move the church to a new basement foundation, which will face on Washington Road.

The program is designed to provide additional space for the Sunday School classes, one of which now meets in the church kitchen; to assure adequate facilities for the youth fellowship groups and other young people's organizations in the community; and to repair and strengthen the foundation timbers of the early 19th century structure.

The church, of which the Rev. Roland F. Chandler is the present pastor, was formally organized December 12, 1812. Farmers living in the area between Princeton and Hightstown had first begun to hold Baptist meetings shortly after the Revolutionary War.

Land for a new church was donated on Alexander (then Canal Street) by Richard Stockton of Princeton about the middle of the last century. An attempt to locate there was made, but ties to the place of origin proved strong and the congregation soon was reunited at Penns Neck.

The church has a modern cemetery, but a bond with the past is furnished by the crudely-lettered sandstones marking the resting places of ancestors of many of the present congregation. Among the names to be found there are Applegate, Beaham, Stults, Major, Jewell, Maple, Crater, Cook, Berrien, Mount, Gulick, Roseahury, Grant, Wycoff, Reed, Thomas, Hooper, Grover, Vaughn, Scheack and Conover.

Jewish Appeal to Open. The Princeton United Jewish Appeal will hold its Initial Gifts Dinner, opening the 1953 campaign here, Monday at 7 at the Princeton Inn. The goal toward the national quota of $144,524,250 is $25,000.

The speaker will be Moshe Rossetti, who has spent the past quarter century working for the establishment of the new State of Israel. He will tell of the need for aiding refugees from the Iron Curtain countries, for helping Israel and its people, as well as a number who will make their new homes in the United States. Since its establishment in 1939, the United Jewish Appeal has aided and resettled more than 2,000,000 men, women and children.

Contributions may be sent to Harry Ballot, treasurer, at 20 Nassau Street. Those aiding the drive, in addition to the committee officers listed last week, are Dr. Henry Abrams, Dr. William Abrams, Marver Bernstein, Seymour Bogdonoff, David Brener, Norman Denard, William Ebenstein, Jess Epstein, Professor Hetty Goldman, Meyer Goldstein, Leonard Hymerling, Dr. Irving Levey, Benjamin Miller, William Miller, Paul Oppenheim, Professor Erwin Panofsky, Julius Peskin, Louis Schleifer, Rubin Schwartzstein, Percy Siskowitz, Dr. Marion Spear and Nat Wolman.

Meeting Date Changed. The Township Board of Education has announced that it will meet next on Thursday, May 14, and henceforth on the second Thursday of each month. On that occasion, reports will be made on insurance, dental health and the acceleration program.

The June meeting will be featured on Page 7

tured by an analysis of heterogeneous and homogeneous grouping of township pupils, while the agenda for early fall includes a complete information program, an evaluation of the course of study, and personnel policies. The calendar adopted for the coming year sets September 4 as registration day for new pupils and Wednesday, September 9, as the first day of school.

Plea to Motorists. Marinda Kelley of 14 College Road, commenting on the hints to bicyclists given by the Safety Committee of the Council of Community Services, suggests that car drivers follow a safety program, too. In a letter to Town Topics, she points out that attention to these precautions would end the "hair-raising ordeal" of cycling and make it "a pleasant and safe means of transportation."

"Don't get out of a car on the traffic side; don't pull out of parking spaces quickly; try not to double park; if you pass anyone who has, give the cyclist the right of way; in general, respect the cyclist as you respect other cars."

Miscellany. Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Pullen of 39 Murray Place observed their 50th wedding anniversary Tuesday. They were married April 28, 1903, at Trinity Church by the rector, the late Rev. Alfred Baker.

Helicopter air mail service from LaGuardia, Idlewild and Newark Airports, is scheduled to come to Princeton some time next month. Two trips a day are planned on a 13-stop route over central New Jersey with the landing site here still to be selected.

Daughters have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kokesch, 222 Moore Street; Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Lowe, 36 Bank Street; Mr. and Mrs. John Conover, RD 1; sons to Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Aron, 400-B Devereux Avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Appelmans, 21 Park Place. Boy Scouts of the George Washington Council from Princeton and Trenton will meet this Friday night at 8 at the Fun School to plan attendance at the third Jamboree in California next July. Lee Page, a member of Troop 88 of Princeton, will attend under the sponsorship of the Princeton Lions Club.

The Women's College Club will meet Monday night at 8:30 at Avalon to hear a talk by Dr. Hetty Goldman on "Great Kingdoms of Anatolia." Well-known as an archaeologist, she directed excavations in Turkey and Greece under the auspices of Harvard and Bryn Mawr and has since been on the staff at the Institute for Advanced Study. Mrs. Carol Alley, Jr., in charge of the meeting, will be assisted by Mrs. Richard Wilhelm, Mrs. Harold Sonnichsen, Mr. Donald W. Peterson, Mrs. Frederic M. Lord, Miss Verne Bayles and Mrs. Thomas James.

"National Missions and Human Rights" is the subject for discussion at the meeting of the Women's Guild of the Second Presbyterian Church Tuesday night at 8. Mrs. E. Urner Goodman will be in charge of the program; Mrs. Thomas R.

HELPS BEAT RUTGERS

Captain Joe Golden

Sports in Princeton

Tigers Blank Rutgers. It was 21 years ago, in the depression-ridden years of 1932, that Princeton last shutout a Rutgers baseball team. The score was 21 to 0.

Tuesday afternoon, junior Joe Castle did it again, although he had nothing like 21 runs to back him up. The Tigers made it 3-0 for him, but the way he was pitching, one would have been sufficient.

He yielded five scattered hits, none when a man was on base; walked only two, fanned four and never allowed a runner past second. It was his second shutout of the year; poor support contributed to his defeats by Seton Hall and N. Y. U., although the Violets tag-

For Other Sports

ged him rather freely, when his control wasn't as sharp as it was against Rutgers.

A pair of errors by third baseman Rudy Stanzel gave the Nassau nine unearned runs in the fourth and sixth. In the fifth, Hank Thomay's double to right and Captain Joe Golden's single pushed across the only tally the Tigers deserved.

That would have done the trick for Castle, the Lawrenceville alumnus throwing hitless ball after the leadoff man in the sixth beat out a drag bunt. Only two Scarlet runners reached second on him, one on a steal and the other on a fielder's choice.

Princeton beat a good sophomore in the visitors' Joe Feldman, finding him for eight fairly solid blows which more than offset the eight strike-out victims he claimed. Feldman had a one and a two-hitter to his credit before coming to University Field.

Golden collected two of the Tigers' hits, and was robbed of a third when Feldman speared his line drive that was ticketed for center field. Herky Parke, light-hitting third baseman, also collared a pair, his first safe blows on the home diamond this season.

John Easton brought the first run across in the fourth. He reached second on a two-base overthrow by Stanzel, took third on Gordie Gray's adept sacrifice bunt and crossed the plate when Eddie Stimpson banged a long fly to left.

After Thomay scored in the fifth, Stimpson walked to open the sixth. Parke's hit past short advanced him to second, Savage sacrificed both men along and Stanzel's boot of Castle's grounder allowed Stimpson to score.

That did it, Castle's control and change of pace baffling Rutgers thoroughly. Joe went into the game as the third Princeton pitcher, behind Bryant and Emery, but left the conviction that when he's in form, adequate support and even three or four runs will bring him out on top of just about any team in the east.

Hun Nine Beaten. Ewing Township High gave Hun's baseball team its sixth loss of the season Tuesday, winning 3-0. Bill Evanko of the victors threw a one-hitter at the Red and Black.

Pat Tidey went the distance for the losers, being touched for eight hits. Ray Alberigi handled the catching assignment.

THE MEASURE OF A BANK

Gold you measure by grams, dirt by the cubic yard. But how do you measure the service a bank offers?

Certainly not just by how many it serves, but how well it serves; not by the number of customers standing in line, but how quickly and pleasantly customers come and go.

The first objective of every one of the 42 men and women who make up our organization is to give complete satisfaction to all customers.

You'll always find a spirit of helpfulness here, and that's why they say of us, "A good place to do business."

Pay For Your Heat The Easy Budget Way

Most families handle household expenses on some sort of budget system - but fuel bills usually don't fit very well into a system. . . . Because weather varies, it is hard to know how much a bill will be for any single month, and LARGE bills hit the budget during the midwinter months when the weather is coldest.

The Better Way . . .

We recommend that you pay for oil with our Easy-Budget Plan. It works this way: The amount of oil you will burn in the next heating season is estimated in advance. Next, we multiply this amount by the estimated average price of oil for the next season. Then we divide the total into equal payments which you pay at the same time each month, throughout the heating season year.

Costs Nothing Extra . . .

There is NO INTEREST. NO EXTRA CHARGE of any kind for the Easy-Budget Plan. For the oil you use you will pay the price in effect at time of delivery, just as you now do.
You will receive a meter ticket with each delivery showing the gallons delivered and the price per gallon. But payments will be more convenient to make.

More and more families are paying for their oil in this more practical way. If the plan sounds good to you, please let us know and we will gladly put it into effect for you.

HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Carousel will be given by Princeton High School through this Saturday, with performances at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium. Tickets for the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical play may be obtained at the box office (tel. 1450) or Hinkson's.

The production under the charge of Thomas Hilbish marks the first time the Broadway success has been staged by a high school. James Kuist, Jean Smith, Richard Buxton, Sandra Dinsmore, Susan Sheldrick, Donald Smith, Carol Search, Bryce Rittenhouse, Diana Chase and Robert Stewart are the featured performers. The school choir forms the chorus for the show.

Sandra Smith is the student director and Marinda Kelley is the stage director, assisted by William Lockwood. Others in the production are: Nancy Kettle, George Amabile, Alicia Wallis and Carol Stevens, promotion; Harry Johnson and Thomas Artin, scenery changes; Dianne Gilchrist, Nancy Cortelyou and Jean Suydam, staging; Norma Voorhees, Marge Jennings, Melissa Kay, Nancy Yeoman, Barbara Dille and Eleanor Gulliksen, properties; Phoebe Searles, costumes;

MURRAY THEATRE

The Theatre Intime's production of the temperance melodrama "The Drunkard" (or "The Fallen Saved") continues its run at the Murray Theatre on the campus through Saturday, May 9. Tickets are on sale at the University Store and nightly at the box office.

Under the direction of Hugh Hardy '54, the Intime's production is aimed at recreating suitable atmosphere for the "meller", aided by such devices as old-style handbills and barroom piano accompaniment.

Ben Piazza '55, Adie Dietz '56, Mrs. Georgine Hall, Miss Clare Minton, Mrs. Arthur Groff and Miss Shirley Hartle head the cast. Incidental intelligence: a production of "The Drunkard" opened in California 22 years ago and is still going strong.

MCCARTER THEATRE

Hit Show, "The Magic Apple," performed last Thursday afternoon and Friday evening at McCarter Theatre, scored another success for the Community Players and Audree Estey's Princeton Ballet Society. The combined effort of these two groups has come to be the annual high point of the Children's Entertainment Series sponsored by the Borough Elementary Schools PTA. In giving an extra performance, the Players provided an opportunity for a larger audience to enjoy a show no one should have missed.

The delightful fantasy was written and directed by Moyne Smith and Nancy Haight, who have a genius for putting scores of children through a finished performance. To them, too, goes the credit for organizing and coordinating this large undertaking.

Audree Estey and her assistants should be especially commended for the beautifully executed ballet numbers of so many children from tots to teen-agers: the colorful ribbon dance; the cadet ballet, led by L. Wendell Estey; the charming

THIS EDITORIAL, from the Trenton Sunday Times-

COMMITTEE FOR CONSOLIDATION OF THE PRINCETON COMMUNITY

Princeton Consolidation

Princeton Township and Princeton Borough are displaying enlightenment and realism in proceeding toward consolidation in order to serve better their mutual interests. In doing so, they are showing a commendable example to other communities influenced by conditions similar to those that are making the proposed Princeton consolidation the course of practical wisdom.

It is of important significance that the trend toward a union of adjoining communities with common responsibilities and problems is widespread throughout the nation. Practical experience is revealing the costliness and the incompetency attending the maintenance of several government systems in areas that could be served advantageously by one system.

Nowhere is this governmental folly more manifest than in Mercer County, where swiftly developing communities are making municipal boundaries barely distinguishable and the demand for new and expanded governmental services is creating serious economic difficulties.

Princeton Township and Princeton Borough are attacking this problem in a sensible and practical way. Proceeding under the Local Units Permissive Consolidation Act, they have created a representative committee to draw up a plan for merging the two communities.

The committee's report will cover such questions as the name, type of government of the proposed new municipality, adjustment of indebtedness, transfer of property and assets, boundaries, etc. The law provides that the committee shall hold two public hearings on the consolidation plan.

The most formidable barrier to the consolidation of other Mercer County communities is the element of selfishness among politicians. They are fearful of the loss of some of their emoluments. Princeton Borough and Princeton Township are fortunate in the respect that they are not required to contend with this difficulty.

NEWS OF THE THEATRES

seamstresses' number; and the Sylphs and Apple Blossom fairies, to mention only a few.

The costumes and stage sets designed by Charlotte Stoddard were enchanting. Her eye for design and color make her working-sketches alone collectors' items.

The musical arrangements by Kay Stroup, the accompanist, never intruded, but accepted or blended with the script. To the production staff who provided publicity, properties, lighting, scenery, make-up and professional-appearing costumes should go special laurels. Without them and the many women backstage who kept so many children under supervision, the show could not have been the eye-and-ear filling spectacle that it was.

Safety in Numbers will be the ninth annual production of the Lawrenceville School's Perlwig Club. Performances will be given next Thursday, May 7, at 7:30 p. m. and the following night at 8 p. m. in McCarter. Tickets at the University Store and the door.

The musical revue is mainly a collection of the top material from former shows, together with new skits and a new ballet. The selections were made by John D. Humason and Case Morgan, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Esty and James Howard.

FILM CLASSIC SERIES

State Fair, starring Jeanne Crain, Dana Andrews and Vivian Blaine, will conclude the spring series of Film Classic revivals sponsored by Group Arts. Performances are at 7 and 9 p. m. this Friday in McCosh 10 on the University campus and tickets are on sale at the door.

THE PLAYHOUSE

Note: The Playhouse has changed its program so that "Salome" and "House of Wax" will each play for a full week, and "Never Wave at a Wave" has been postponed to May 13-16.

Salome (Wed.-Tues.) is a lot of picture for fans of the gigantic, Technicolor, sex and the Bible spectacle formula. It's an intellectual insult from the point of view of a document of history, but the film does have great pictorial opulence, serious conflicts and quantities of action.

Rita Hayworth as Salome is banished from Rome and goes to Galilee where she adds in attempts to save the life of John the Baptist. Her stratagems include, naturally, the dance of the seven veils. Others in the cast are Stewart Granger, Charles Laughton, Judith Anderson and Sir Cedric Hardwicke. Advanced prices.

House of Wax (Wed.-Tues.) is a three Dimension film and much further along the way from both technical and story viewpoints than "Bwana Devil," which first kicked up the 3-D fuss. A special Warner sound system adds to the powerful depth sensation and the superior technical work is most welcome.

While the thrills-and-chills story is not too serious and the performances tend to be dwarfed by aural and visual effects, the plot is a good showcase for the technique. Vincent Price plays a mad sculptor who uses corpses as frames for his wax figures. Frank Lovejoy is the detective and Phyllis Kirk the heroine, who has objections to being used as the frame for a wax Marie.

The New Jersey Poll

APPROVAL FOR DRISCOLL DROPPING; 2-YEAR DRAFT
FOR YOUNG MEN FAVORED

A majority of the New Jersey voters questioned by New Jersey Poll staff reporters just before the

April 21 Primary say they approve of the way Governor Driscoll is presently doing his job.

Those who disapprove of the job
Driscoll is doing come to 28 in each 100. In other words, voters expressing approval of Driscoll outnumber by exactly two to one

those expressing disapproval.

When New Jersey Poll staff reporters personally asked an accurate cross-section of the state's voters:

"Do you approve or disapprove of the way Driscoll is handling his job as governor of New Jersey?"

The vote was:

Approve	56%
Disapprove	28
No opinion	16

Highlight of today's survey findings is that majority sentiment among Republicans, Democrats and Independents alike approves of the way Governor Driscoll is doing his job.

Somewhat more Republicans than either Democrats or Independents, however, express approval of their governor.

The vote by political parties:

	Rep.	Dem.	Ind.
Approve	60%	53%	54%
Disapprove	29	27	29
No opinion	11	20	17

Survey findings also show that majority sentiment—at least 51 out of every 100—in each population segment in the state examined say they approve of the way their governor is presently doing his job. In no population group do more than 1 in 3 express disapproval. These groups include all age and educational levels, city sizes, occupations, political parties, and labor union members.

Since the spring of 1950, the New Jersey Poll has been making annual measurements of New Jersey people's opinions of Governor Discoll.

Here is the vote today and the trend over the past three years:

	Today	1952	1951	1950
Approve	56%	64%	60%	64%
Disapprove	29	17	15	24
No opinion	16	19	25	12

Draft Favored. More than 2 out of every 3 voters in the state are of the opinion that every young man who has not already been in the Armed Forces should spend two years in the Armed Forces or in work connected with national defense.

JERSEY POLL
Forces or in work connected with national defense?"
The results:
Should 68%
Should not 25%
No opinion 7%
Analysis of the views of the various population groups in the state on the question of drafting all young men for a two-year period things to light a number of highly interesting findings.
To begin with, sentiment for having every young man in the country give two years' service cuts clear across political party lines.
The vote by political parties:

	Rep.	Dem.	Ind.
Should	65%	71%	69%
Should not	28	23	24
No opinion	7	6	7

The survey also finds virtually uniform sentiment among all educational levels. Worthy of particular mention, too, is that at least 3 out of 5 in every population segment in the state examined are of the opinion that every young man who has not already been in the Armed Forces should spend two years in the Armed Forces or in work connected with national defense.

These groups include people in all age and educational levels, city sizes, occupations, political parties and labor union members.

More School Aid Wanted. More than 3 out of every 5 voters in the state are of the opinion that the New Jersey state government at the present time is not giving enough money towards the support of their local public schools.

Those who share this opinion outnumber by a margin of nearly 5 to 1 those who feel that the state government is giving about the right amount of money toward the support of their local public schools.

This was the finding when New Jersey Poll staff reporters put the following question to an accurate cross-section of the state's voters during the past two weeks:

"Would you say that the New Jersey state government (not the local government, the state government) at the present time is giving too much money or not enough money towards the support of your local public schools?"

Not enough	63%
Too much	37%
Enough	13
No opinion	24

*Less than one-half percent.

Perhaps the most significant finding in today's survey is that at least 55 out of each 100 in every population segment in the state examined are of the opinion that the New Jersey state government is not giving enough money towards the support of their local public schools.

These groups include all age and educational levels, city sizes, occupations, labor union members, political parties, home owners and renters, as well as those people with children in school and those without.

All persons who said that the state was not giving enough support towards their local public schools were then asked:

"Would you favor the state giving more money towards the support of your local public schools if it means higher state taxes?"

The results:

Yes, favor	50%
No, opposed	13

Those saying state not giving enough support on first question... 63%

Those saying state giving enough or expressing no opinion on first question... 37

Sports in Princeton

Action for All. One of the busiest weekends of the spring sports season arrives on the calendar this Friday and Saturday. If the fickle weatherman permits, two baseball games (one of them constituting a doubleheader with lacrosse), a tennis match and a varsity-freshman track meet with Yale will all be held here. Princeton's varsity crew will row on the Charles River in its annual bid for the Compton Cup, while the 150-lb. oarsmen will meet Harvard and Yale on the Housatonic for the Goldthwait Cup.

Brown's baseball team will play at University Field Friday at 4 in an Eastern League contest, with Harvard here Saturday at 1. Princeton must win them both to stay in the running for the 1953 title. The game against the Crimson will be followed at 4 by a clash with Navy in lacrosse.

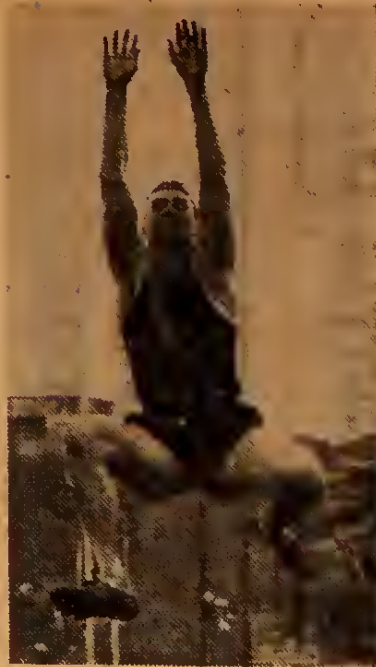

In Palmer Stadium at 2, the freshman and varsity track teams will oppose Yale. Hopes are that the varsity (4-0 this season) can repeat last year's triumph over the Blue.

Tiger Crews Are Good. Princeton may be on the eve of a spectacular double victory in crew, although it must be added that inability to achieve it will not be a mark of failure. It is, however, within the realm of possibility that the Tigers could win the Compton Cup against Harvard and M.I.T. at Cambridge, and that the lightweights could take their Big Three rivals at New Haven.

Continuing to forecast the brightest possible outcome, the Tiger heavies could sweep the river on the Charles. Their jayvee boat is not far off the ability of the varsity, while the freshmen have better than average power and coordination for a first-year shell.

It was the 1956 boat that topped its Navy counterparts on Carnegie Saturday, whipping the Plebes by a good three lengths. The jayvees lost by two and the varsity by four, but it is no disgrace to be beaten by such margins when Navy furnishes the opposition.

WINS TITLE AT PENN

Captain Buzz Taylor

With a following wind, Navy's superb eight was less than five seconds off the course record for a mile and three-quarters, negotiating the distance in 8:45. The Princeton lightweights, with six sophomores in the boat that trounced Columbia by six lengths, were only seven seconds off the Henley record—the fine time of 6:40.8 that has stood up for the mile and 5/16 distance since 1942. Performances such as this justify the prediction of a possible double win Saturday, even though Harvard will provide particularly stiff opposition.

Victory Sought Over Yale. Paced by Captain Buzz Taylor, who won the broad jump title at the Penn relays with a fine performance of 25 feet, 3/4 inch, the track team has its sights set on Yale. Last year's victory over the Blue was the first in a decade, and belief is that the balance again exists to upset the New Haven forces.

Toby Maxwell will aim for a double in the mile and two mile, a feat he has achieved several times during the winter and spring seasons. Others likely to win for Mat-ty Geis are Dick Yaffa in the mid-dle distances, Frank McPhee in the javelin, Jerry Bahb in the pole vault and of course Buzz Taylor in the broad jump. The latter may gain the NCAA crown this year and figures to repeat in the IC4A.

Ball Team Splits. After a wor-fully ragged performance against N. Y. U., which the Violets took home as a 9-4 gift, Princeton's baseball team went through eight none-too-impressive innings against Army on Saturday. The ninth saw the Tigers come to life with a three-run rally that pulled a 5-4 game out of the fire and kept them in the thick of the Eastern League race.

Big John Easton's firecracker double exploded in right center and was followed by a walk to pinch-hitter Pete Van Gylenbeek and Ed-die Stimpson's perfect hunt that tolled for a hit to fill the bases. Pinch-hitter Barry Kessler dropped a single in short right which the Army picketman could not hold and Easton scored.

Pinch-hitter Tom Murphy drew a walk to force in the tying run and after Al Bryant had fanned, sophomore John Perkins was hit by relief hurler Walt LeCates for the tally that broke up the game. It was an attempted squeeze play, Stimpson scoring when Perkins stood his ground and got clipped by the ball on the wrist. Army's claim of a foul strike fell on ex-pectedly deaf ears.

Bryant looked well in relief, throwing 6 2/3 innings as the win-ning pitcher. He would have hur-led shutout ball save for a single that eluded Gordy Gray in left for an Army home run in the seventh.

Bryant replaced Dick Emery, who has lost his control after vic-tories over Penn and Navy. As a result, Bryant will probably get the call against Harvard Satur-day, with the hope that Emery will return to form against Brown, the weaker of the two opponents head-ing for University Field.

Wednesday will see Colgate play-ing here at 2, while the team goes to New Haven next week to play Yale. The clash is the first of three scheduled with the Elis and ranks as the league encounter between the two colleges.

Rally Wins in Lacrosse. Prince-ton's lacrosse team took a major step toward the national title Sat-urday—with its 12-9 triumph over Maryland, which had previously lost only to Virginia in seven Al Bryant, who starred in relief role, and Ed Stimpson, whose arm cut down three runners stealing second. Stimpson's ninth inning bunt-hit allowed him to score the winning run in 5-4 victory over the cadets.

Weiss-coached track teams haven't lost in dual competition for the last six years. It is, however, bad news for the opposition: in the im-mediate case, two Trenton teams which have been beaten by lop-sided scores.

Hamilton High was walloped last week, 103 to 14, the visitors taking just one first. Carl Brown won both hurdles and the high jump, while Al Terry took the sprints and placed second in the javelin.

Monday saw the Blue and White rip through Trenton High, win-ning by 79½ to 37½. This time, the visitors took three firsts and tied for another, but the Little Tigers swept all three places in the shotput, the discus and the javelin. Larry Fitzgerald racked up a dou-ble in the latter two events.

Brown and Terry with 13 points were high scorers for the day. Brown's fine 15.8 second perfor-mance in the 120-yard high hurdles established a school record at PHS. It broke by a fifth of a second the mark held jointly by Jim Varner, co-captain of this year's squad, and Leon Green '51.

Other first place winners were Doug Wengel in the mile, Varner in the low hurdles and Bob Rosner in the shot put. The victory was the school's 36th in a row over six seasons.

The Newark Board of Education meet Saturday is next on the schedule, with the Blue and White in the role of defending champions. Long Branch, here Tuesday, is ex-pected to be the toughest opponent of the 1953 season.

PHS Nine Now 2-1. Princeton High School's baseball team had a 2-1 record after splitting with a pair of Trenton rivals. The Little Tigers, who had opened with a vic-tory over Hun, lost to Trenton —Continued on Page 21

Mayland, who previously lost only to Virginia in seven games. The Tigers will, however, have a good chance of winning the Navy Saturday for the middies barely lost to Maryland by a 10-9 count.

Harry Berkowitz and Bob Russell, who have been the main assists from John Fish to score the tying and winning goals against Maryland as twilight began to gather on University Field in the half and 9-7 shortly after the final point began, but a Princeton rally that duplicated the surge staged the night before baseball team whipped the visitors.

Earlier in the week, Coach Fortis Thomson's ten conquered Pennsylvania, 12-10, before the Quakers won their first game in the next week, have trimmed the Orange and Black in this sport for the past 21 years.

Tennis and Golf Victories, Princeton's tennis team goes after its 43rd consecutive victory this Friday afternoon when it plays Cornell at Ithaca. The Orange and Black and Navy, by identical scores of 8-1, were the latest victims last week; the Tigers have had only two points scored against them this season, one by a boy when the string that began in 1949.

med with navy (or red), it is lined with suede leather.

You can have gloves to match, too. They are white cotton with navy fagoting. Crescendo is the maker. The bag is $10.50 plus tax, and the gloves are $2.98.

Polo, Anyone? Polo shirts at The English Shop, 33 Palmer Square West, are Aerette by Hathaway. The fabric is an open mesh, but at a distance it doesn't look like open-work. Probably because of the check pattern.

There is a red windowpane check (or navy) on white, and something called a Bicycle Stripes that comes in a motley of colors. It seems that men cyclists, back in 1850 or so, used to wear shirts with horizontal pinstripes. Your man can wear one even if he has no handlebar mustache.

For late spring and summer, tell the pants-wearer in your household about seven-ounce all wool tropical slacks. These are Oxford or Cambridge grey (the dark and the light of it).

A handsome medium grey tropical suit is only $38.25. And for the time when summer comes in earnest, Moyaschel linen jackets, some natural, some white.

Soup of the Evening. The soup du jour comes out of an Ironstone tureen—reproduction—now on the shelf at The Flower Basket, 136 Nassau. We have always been curious about that term "Ironstone." Is it a way of making china? Was there a Mr. Ironstone who designed soup tureens? Does it wear like iron, or what?

Well, anyhow, these are excellent reproductions at a price you can pay, $13.95 for tureen and ladle. It would make a splendid punch bowl, year round.

To match, the Flower Basket has a gray boat for $5.25, and some composites that are like little tureens—each with its own small ladle. For sauces, and such, we suppose. These are $6.75.

They say a blotter is what you look for while the ink is drying. A potholder is something you hunt for while the pot cools. To keep you from hunting, here is a potholder with a magnetic tab that grabs the stove and hangs on. For $1.25 a pair.

The magnets are enclosed in a small plastic bag that unhooks so that you can attach it to another potholder when this one wears out. You can also put it on a home-crocheted holder.

If your windows have no hips, buy a window-shell that fastens to the sill and extends its width. These shelves require neither screw nor nail. With them, you can add about four inches to any window in the house, and still be able to put the window up or down.

Fine for an additional bathroom or kitchen shelf, and just the right size, of course, for flower-pots. Costs $2.

Hidden Treasure. We found the spandiest little wallet at Price's, 86 Nassau. It's summer-light plastic, by Buxton, in white with stripes of red, or black, or blue, or purple or green. Black stripes on red, orange on black—practically anything.

It has a snug inner pocket for such treasures as $100 bills, traveler's checks, laundry stubs and important addresses. Seams are welded, surface washable, texture like a very fine grosgrain—not plastic-slick. Costs $1.

"Leather" mats, styled like the tops of boiled leather tables, are something new. They come in circles or rectangles, in dark imitation leather with fine gold tooling around the edges. A big rectangular one would be fine on an 18th-century desk, fine for a 20th-century wallet: only $1.98.

The little mats, five inches in diameter, are only 29c. There are six colors, including an olive, and about eight sizes and shapes. Backs are felt, fronts may be kept clean with a damp cloth.

THE GARDEN

High Noon AND The African Queen (Thurs.-Sat.) should need no introduction. In case you've forgotten, "High Noon" is the excellent Western with Gary Cooper which picked up most of the 1952 critical marbles as did "African Queen" in 1951. Humphrey Bogart and Katherine Hepburn star in an exciting Technicolor river journey.

The double feature set-up will work this way: "African Queen" starts the matinee at 2:15 p.m. (sic), followed by "High Noon" at 4:12. In the evening it'll be "High Noon" at 7 and 10:22, "African Queen" at 8:25 only.

The Member of the Wedding (Mon.-Wed.) is an excellent portrait of a young girl's struggles with the realities of the adult world. Many film-goers will squirm at the lack of "action," but those who like a sensitive, moving, film will see much in the careful presentation of what is admittedly a difficult theme.

Stanley Kramer made the picture by closely following Carson McCullers' hit play from her own novel. The original Broadway cast has been used, and that includes the distinctive talents of Julie Harris, Ethel Waters and Brandon de Wilde.

Jamaica Run (Thurs.-Sat.) is a good old Caribbean melodrama-romance in Technicolor dressed into a "modern" format. A resort hotel promoter produces some phoney heirs to a fine old Jamaican estate and the identity of the real is thought to be buried with a long-sunken ship. After much underwater action, murder and romance, the old plantation burns anyway. Ray Milland and Arlene Dahl head the stars, and look for Walt Disney's "The Olympic Elk" from his animal series on the same program.

Catholic, 10-5, before topping Ewing Township High, 3-1, last Friday.

Bob Stewart was the loser in the Trenton Catholic contest, which saw the victors jump out to a 4-0 lead in the third inning. Harry Burton and Bob Bosley paced a Princeton High rally that was good for two runs in the next round, but Trenton Catholic sewed up the contest with four more in the fifth and two in the sixth. Stewart fanned six and walked only two but was found for ten hits, including three doubles.

Bob Stadler hurled the win over Ewing Township, yielding a run in the first round but protecting the margin his mates gave him in the second, when they scored all their markers. Bosley's walk with the bases filled was followed by Bob Montgomery's two-run single to give the Blue and White all the runs it needed.

A game with Hamilton Township this Thursday afternoon was the fourth road contest in a row for Coach Morrill Shepard's nine. The home season will be launched next Friday, May 8, against Long Branch.

Hun Nine Loses. Hun School continued to encounter trouble on the diamond, losing its fifth in a row as Trenton High pounded out a 20-0 victory. The Red and Black ran into all sorts of trouble in the very first inning, when 17 of the visitors went to the plate and 11 of them scored.

Vic Perone and Mario Varela absorbed the brunt of the Trenton High attack. The losers were held to three hits and 11 of them went down via the strike-out route. George School this Friday and Rutgers Prep a week from Saturday were next on the Hun schedule.
